Sexual exploitation is abuse and a crime

Child sexual exploitation is a crime that can affect any child, anytime, anywhere - regardless of social or ethnic background.

It involves offenders grooming youngsters and using their power to sexually abuse them. It can take many forms, whether it occurs through a seemingly 'consensual' relationship with an older boyfriend, or a young person having sex in return for attention, gifts, alcohol or cigarettes.

We all have a responsibility, no matter who we are or where we work, to protect our children. Child sexual exploitation is a hidden crime. Knowing the signs and taking positive action, together with a zero tolerance stance to child sexual exploitation we will help to safeguard victims and identify offenders.

If you suspect a child is at risk, or is being subjected to, child sexual exploitation call 101 or if the matter is an emergency dial 999.
