

Positive Practice in School Transition

Supporting the emotional well-being of children

This Early Years training event is part of a series of free CPD events delivered by The Charlie Waller Memorial Trust, that aim to help school staff better identify and address the emotional wellbeing and mental health needs of Wiltshire children and young people. More information can be found here:

<https://www.wiltshirehealthyschools.org/partnership-projects/cwmt-school-mental-health-network/>

Designed for: Primary Headteachers and Reception teachers and staff, feeder pre-school staff and Children's Centre managers

Course Organiser: Nick Bolton, PDE Adviser, Wiltshire Council

Training delivered by: Sue McVay, Director of Partnerships - PACEY, Caroline Drake, Early Years Advisory Teacher, Wiltshire Council, Rosalie Mead, Children's Services Lead, Spurgeons.

Date Time Venue Tuesday 14th March 2017 (09.30 - 12.00)
North Wiltshire Teacher Education Centre, Royal Wootton Bassett Academy. SN4 7HG

Price: Free for all schools, settings and Children's Centre managers in the Wiltshire LA and surrounding areas

Closing Date: Tuesday 7th March 2017

By the end of the session you will have:

- Considered models of good practice supporting successful transition to primary school, particularly for children vulnerable to underachievement
- Increased understanding of strategies which help children feel positive about starting school and which supports school readiness from PACEY's Starting School Together Project and Wiltshire's Transition to School Project
- Considered ways of working together to support smooth transition to school

To apply:

Please book online through Eventbrite: <http://bit.ly/2h6206H>

For general enquiries about this series of courses: helen.drown@wiltshire.gov.uk