

JOIN NEVER SUCH INNOCENCE IN AMPLIFYING THE VOICES OF ARMED FORCES CHILDREN!

Throughout the academic year, Never Such Innocence offers free poetry, art, speech and song writing workshops to schools with service pupils!

Our creative practitioners work with mixed groups of tri-service and civilian children to explore different aspects of service life and the broader theme of conflict. These workshops are inclusive, fun and can be tailored to your needs.

Why not schedule a visit by NSI when looking ahead to key dates in the calendar:

Remembrance Day - November
Month of the Military Child - April
Armed Forces Day - June

Email enquiries@neversuchinnocence.com to book a workshop!

“ The Creative Poetry workshops were a lovely way to enrich our Month of the Military Child discussions in school. They coincided with our ‘wear something purple day’ and feedback from parents indicated that the Military Children in our school were made to feel very special when talking about the things that make them unique. Having NSI lead the sessions allowed both military and civilian children to express how moving schools, changing friendships and parents working away affects so many children in schools every month of the year.

Jo Wilson, Armed Forces Champion, Robert Wilkinson Primary Academy

“ Thank you once again for the opportunity to participate and give another opportunity for the children and young people to express their lived experiences, it opened a window into a different creative space through creative writing and poetry.

Neil Brimer, Community Support Development Worker

www.neversuchinnocence.com

Registered Charity No. 1156148 | Company No. 8680319

Art credit: ‘Their Eyes Were Watching’ by Katie S (14-16)

